FLASH BACK

TEACHERS REMEMBER

THE Class of 1998

MRS. RYAN.....

Sedrick Gervais, sophomore year, was main chef for our Foods II class barbecue. He came to school in his new expensive tan leather boots. Fearful he might drip grease from hamburgers on his boots, he ran to the gym locker room to change into his sneakers while the class waited. He ran back, cooked the burgers and hot dogs, then ran back to the gym to put on the 'new' boots while we again waited. As we went outdoors, Sedrick stepped into the BIGGEST pile of dog 'doo' a new leather boot could find! Kevin Grant made the best and most time-consuming pumpkin cheesecake ever, however, he didn't know how a 'springform' pan worked. I had already opened the spring on the pan but Kevin, ever anxious to see his creation, picked it up to show the class, only to have the whole thing smash to the floor leaving Kevin holding the sides of the pan.

MR. CELLI:

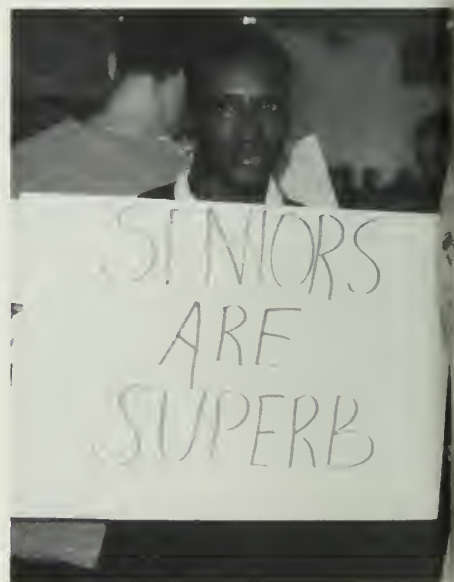

Jonathan Logan- In my 7th grade Science class, I was telling the students how to "bake yeast". When I wrote it on the board, I wrote "bake breast"!

Sedrick Gervais wrote a referral slip about me not treating him nicely. The next thing I knew, it was in the school newspaper!

Domenic Grice - I beat him in a game of one-on-one with my softball cleats on at the Crowley Field.

STUDENTS NICKNAMED BY MR. CELLI include:

David "I don't play the Piano, I play the" Horgan
Alex "Mr. President" Nagle (an unnamed source reported that this name was first given to Mr. President by none other than "Johnny Angel" Lyons.)
Bill Schell - "King FOIL"
John "the MAN OF" Steele

MR. RUGGLES

I remember the day my fifth period juniors (now the class of '98) returned to class hungry because Papa Gino's had failed to deliver the pizza on the day's cafeteria menu. Sympathizing with them, I decided to remedy the situation. Using Kate Markunas' cellular phone, from my classroom desk I called up our friend at Avon House of Pizza who within twenty minutes arrived at the back door, pizzas in hand.

FLASHBACK

MR. HENDERSON'S QUICK TAKES IN THE CLASS OF '98:

Kate Markunas - Sedrick, can I see that book again?!
